Cadwalader Adds Special Counsel

New York, NY, May 29, 2007, Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP, one of the world's leading international law firms, announced the recent hires of Special Counsel Jonathan S. Kanter, Anthony V. Nanni, and Erik Remmler.

"We are pleased to welcome these experienced lawyers to our team," stated Robert O. Link, Jr., Chairman and Managing Partner of Cadwalader. "With their breadth of experience and wide-ranging capabilities, they will be a valuable resource for the firm's clients. We look forward to working with them."

Jonathan S. Kanter joins Cadwalader's Antitrust Group in Washington, D.C. He will counsel clients in the full range of antitrust matters, with a specific focus on mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, and investigations by the U.S. Department of Justice and the U.S. Federal Trade Commission. Prior to joining Cadwalader, Mr. Kanter worked as an antitrust attorney in the Washington, D.C. office of Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver and Jacobson LLP. Mr. Kanter also worked for the Federal Trade Commission's Bureau of Competition, where he investigated a number of significant mergers and acquisitions. He has antitrust experience in a variety of industries, including software, Internet-related products and services, lodging, gaming, media, cable, consumer products, pharmaceutical, retail, semiconductor, and oil. Mr. Kanter served as Associate Editor of, and was a regular contributor to, The Party Line, a publication of the American Bar Association's Section of Antitrust Law, Communications Industry Committee. He received his J.D. from Washington University and his B.A., cum laude, from the State University of New York at Albany.

Also joining the Antitrust Group is Anthony V. Nanni who concentrates in federal antitrust and fraud investigations and prosecutions involving both corporate and individual clients. He has provided antitrust counseling and conducted intensive internal investigations for numerous major corporations. Prior to joining Cadwalader, Mr. Nanni was Of Counsel to Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver and Jacobson LLP. From 1985-2002, he served as Chief of the National Criminal Enforcement Section (formerly Litigation) in the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice. While he held this position, he was awarded the Presidential Rank Award of Distinguished Executive, as well as the Neil Roberts Award for Excellence in Antitrust Enforcement. He began his career as a trial attorney in the New York office of the Antitrust Division. Mr. Nanni received his J.D. from Fordham University School of Law, where he was a member of the Law Review, and his B.E.E. from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, where he was awarded Tau Beta Pi honors.

Erik Remmler rejoins the firm's Capital Markets Department in New York. With more than fifteen years of capital markets experience, he has developed expertise in a number of areas, including derivatives, public finance, health care finance, credit enhancement, project finance, and turnkey facility contracts, among others. Mr. Remmler will focus his practice on the development, negotiation, and documentation of various financial products, including interest rate derivatives, liquidity facilities, credit enhancement, total return swaps, forwards, and other structured products. Previously, Mr. Remmler served as Special Counsel in Public Finance at Sidley Austin LLP and in the municipal derivatives group at Cadwalader. He received a B.A., with honors, from the University of Chicago and a J.D. from Pace Law School, where he was a member of the Law Review.
