The fund finance market is growing, and so is our team. The Cadwalader Fund Finance practice recently added two new associates in our Washington, D.C. and New York offices.

Johan de Wet has joined Cadwalader's Fund Finance practice as an associate in our Washington, D.C. office, and represents banks and financial institutions in structuring, negotiating and documenting subscription credit facilities for private equity funds. Johan joins us from the pan-African law firm Bowmans in South Africa, where he represented both domestic and international lenders and borrowers in a variety of cross-border financings. Johan received his LL.M. from Georgetown University Law Center, his Honors Bachelor of Commerce in Management Accounting from the University of South Africa, and his Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Commerce in Financial Accounting from the University of Stellenbosch.

Dylan Glazier has joined Cadwalader's Fund Finance practice as an associate in our New York office. He joins us from Guggenheim Partners Investment Management, LLC, where he acted as in-house counsel, advising on various financial matters as a member of their transactional team. He received his LL.M. from New York University School of Law, and his LL.B. from University of Dublin, Trinity College School of Law.
