

Fund Finance Friday

Fitch Ratings Report on Private Equity CFOs

May 20, 2022 | Issue No. 176

Fitch Ratings released a report this week on private equity collateralized fund obligations and their positive credit performance over the past six months. In the report, Fitch noted that some tranche rating upgrades are occurring as a result of deleveraging. The report is premium content and requires a subscription, but is accessible here.