

FUND FINANCE FRIDAY

FFA Miami Conference Sold Out

March 8, 2019 | Issue No. 17

The fund finance market has certainly supported the FFA's change in venue for the Global Symposium to Miami. The event has now been sold out for several weeks and 600 people are currently registered. Market participants have been scrambling to find sponsorship passes that have yet to be allocated. The FFA is extremely appreciative of the support the market has given the event and regrets that facility constraints are preventing further registrants. You can get on the waitlist for the event here.
