

Fund Finance Friday

Irish Fund Finance in Five – Part 2

February 28, 2025

Ireland's prominence in global fund finance brings unique legal considerations. In the second installment of Irish Fund Finance in Five, Mason Hayes & Curran lawyers dive into key considerations when security is granted by an Irish fund or over assets located in Ireland.

Conor Lynch and Ciarán Murray discuss the nuances to be considered when taking Irish law security, including topics such as restrictions on third party guarantees, cascading security and perfection requirements.

Read on for insights and download the full series for a comprehensive guide to navigating Irish legal issues in fund finance transactions.

Click here.