

Fund Finance Friday

Private Funds CFO Article on LP Defaults

August 30, 2019 | Issue No. 43

Private Funds CFO earlier this week published an article titled “Defaulting on Commitments: What Happens,” written by Ed Hall, a partner in Goodwin Procter LLP’s private investment funds team. The article covers default remedies when an investor fails to fund a capital call and references overcall limitations and subscription lender preferences. The article is available here.