Second Installment of Wildgen Fund Finance Webinar: Fund Finance Transaction, Lender and Borrower Perspectives

July 31, 2020 | Issue No. 88

Last week Wildgen's Michael Mbayi hosted an insightful panel discussion that gave listeners the opportunity to compare and contrast fund finance transactions and trends in the European, U.S. and Asian markets. During the conversation, participants (including Cadwalader's Samantha Hutchinson, ING's Sally Little, Mourant's Danielle Roman and White & Case's Sherri Snelson) explained the various considerations taken into account when entering into subscription and NAV facilities, including: what they look out for when reviewing LPAs, which financing options would be most appropriate given the life stage of a fund, and even some of those niggly perfection requirements.
