

In Conversation With Larry Silverstein

On June 17, the Young Jewish Professionals (YJP) organization hosted a real estate session with Larry Silverstein, Chairman at Silverstein Properties, as part of their Young Jewish Philanthropist series. YJP is a nonprofit focused on providing business, educational and mentoring opportunities for the new generation of Jewish business leaders.

Cadwalader partner and Real Estate practice chair Bonnie Neuman moderated the fireside chat with Silverstein at the World Trade Center, where the audience also got a tour of the property. You can see the photos here.
