October 29, 2024

Cadwalader partner and Real Estate Finance practice leader Bonnie Neuman has been named to the “2025 Lawdragon 500 Leading Dealmakers in America,” which honors the U.S.’s top lawyers who “are the beating heart of business in the U.S. and far, far beyond. To be a dealmaker in 2025 is inherently international, so the past year has been full of uncertainty and a fair amount of chaos, as well as the ever present intersection of opportunity, risk and reward.” Bonnie was among 20 Cadwalader partners named to this year's guide.
