Below the portrait, the text 'Matt Robertson, Partner' is written in white. The background of the graphic consists of blue and white geometric shapes.

Cadwalader Real Estate partner Matthew Robertson was recently elected as Board Chair of the Charlotte Center for Legal Advocacy. This honor, which comes after five years of service on the board, reflects Matt's leadership and commitment to advancing equal access to justice. Cadwalader is proud to deepen our longstanding relationship with this incredible organization.

"By helping to ensure access to justice for everyone, the Advocacy Center fills an important role in our community," Matt told the Center. "I am stepping into this role at a time when the Center's public funding sources are under unprecedented attack but look forward to working with new CEO Larissa Mañón Mervin as we face this challenge and continue to serve our clients."
