03/19/2021	620	(Text-Only) ORDER/NOTICE TO ATTORNEY. In recognition of the current efforts locally and nationally to protect persons from unnecessary potential exposure to COVID-19, the settlement conference will not take place in person. Rather, the settlement conference will take place by alternative means, such as participation by phone or video conference, which will be communicated to the parties in advance of the settlement conference. Should a party not be able to participate by alternative means or have health concerns about such participation, a party may request that the settlement conference be rescheduled. Such requests will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. The parties are not required to conduct any applicable meet and confers in person. Ordered by Magistrate Judge Tony N. Leung on 3/19/2021.
