

The impact of BEPS & Brexit

How BEPS & Brexit will impact alternative asset management

Millennium Hotel,
44 Grosvenor Square, London W1
8.15 – 12.15, Wednesday, July 12

BEPS is likely to have more impact on the alternative fund industry's structure than any other measure that has come along in the last 25 years. (BEPS' MLI is formally signed in June.) This event will be examining what the impact will be. It will also be analysing how Brexit will affect the geography of European asset management.

View seminar programme >>

The impact of BEPS & Brexit

How BEPS & Brexit will impact alternative asset management

Seminar programme

8.15 Breakfast & Registration

8.45 The Impact of BEPS

How BEPS is likely to impact alternative managers and the jurisdictions where their funds are domiciled. What should the industry be doing to prepare for this OECD led initiative?

Simon Osborn, CEO, IFI Global

9.00 BEPS Panel discussion

A panel discussion focussing on the most relevant measures for the industry from the 15 BEPS Action Plans (such as Permanent Establishment; Hybrid Mismatch; Treaty Abuse and Transfer Pricing)

Adam Blakemore, Tax Partner, Cadwalader

Jo Huxtable, Partner, Deloitte Guernsey

Robert Mellor, UK Asset Management Tax Leader

Elliot Refson, Director, Crestbridge

10.30 Coffee & tea break

10.45 Brexit: how will it affect the industry's structure?

Why the outcome of the EU-UK Brexit negotiations are of vital importance to onshore and offshore fund jurisdictions

Anthony Belchambers, Chairman, the Council of the Financial Services Negotiation Forum

Lucy Frew, Partner and Head of the Regulatory & Advisory Group, Walkers

Dr Alan Sked, Professor Emeritus of International History, London School of Economics

Dr Andy Sloan, Director of Financial Stability & International Policy Advisor for the Guernsey Financial Services Commission.

12.15 Close

This event is free to attend for investors, managers and subscribers to ADI, The NED or Tracker. For others there is a fee of £350 (excl VAT). For booking enquiries and further details please e-mail: Tamara Sims sims@ifiglobal.com