

CLERK'S NOTICE TO ALL CIVIL LITIGANTS WITH MATTERS CURRENTLY PENDING BEFORE THE HONORABLE PHYLLIS J. HAMILTON:In light of the current public health emergency caused by coronavirus disease (COVID-19), the court issues the following Notice with the aim of balancing public health and safety concerns, including minimizing the risk of exposure, with the need for scheduling certainty and having civil matters proceed regularly.1. All Case Management Conferences shall be held telephonically through CourtCall. No requests for telephonic appearance are required for CMCs during the effective period of this Notice. The parties shall refer to Judge Hamiltons Notice re CMC Telephonic Appearance Procedures for using CourtCall services. 2. All Law and Motion matters will be submitted on the papers. No oral argument or personal appearance shall be held on regularly noticed or specially set motion hearings or other matters in civil cases. Any hearing set on the Courts calendar in a civil case during the effective period of this Notice shall be vacated. In the event that the court determines that oral argument is necessary, the court will issue a notice to the parties setting a telephonic hearing on the noticed hearing date, or other date to be determined by the court, and directing the parties to appear telephonically through CourtCall.3. All Civil Trials are subject to continuance. If the court determines that continuance of a trial is warranted by ongoing public health concerns, a notice of continuance will be issued.This Notice remains in effect until May 1, 2020 and may be extended by the court. Motion Hearing set for 4/15/2020 re 72 Motion to Dismiss Second Amended Complaint is VACATED. (This is a text-only entry generated by the court. There is no document associated with this entry.)
