

PAPERLESS ORDER: The Court denies 23 the parties' agreed motion for a 21-day extension of time for the Defendant to respond to the complaint. The Defendant's response was originally due on April 15, 2020. However, since that time, the parties have filed multiple motions for extensions of time based on the COVID-19 pandemic, settlement negotiations, or a combination of both. The parties' latest motion would give the Defendants six-and-a-half months to respond to the complaint. The motion does not explain why over six months of extra time is necessary to negotiate a settlement or alleviate the disruptions caused by the pandemic. The Defendant's response to the complaint remains due on or before September 29, 2020. Signed by Judge Robert N. Scola, Jr. (sbn) (Entered: 09/25/2020)
