Linda Swartz, the longtime chair of Cadwalader's Tax Group and member of the Firm's Management Committee, focuses her practice on structuring complex restructurings, bankruptcies, mergers and acquisitions, spin-offs, joint ventures, and foreign tax planning strategies. She also regularly advises clients on fund structures, financings and derivative transactions.

Linda is consistently recognized as one of the leading tax lawyers in the country. She was recently named one of 14 "Influential Women In Tax Law" by Law360, noted for her role as "a key architect on billion-dollar transactions involving major multinational companies" with clients describing her tax structuring expertise as "so strong that we don't even go to the IRS to get a blessing from them. We go to Linda to get a blessing from her." She has been described by Chambers USA as "acclaimed for her vast reservoir of practical knowledge of the U.S. tax code" and "an expert on the law of today but cognizant of where the law might go in the future, allowing clients to make decisions which last for the next ten years." Clients quoted by The Best Lawyers in America have described Linda as "the foremost U.S. tax advisor on structured acquisition and divestiture deals" and "a professional force of nature" with "extraordinary technical ability, coupled with fiercest and most trenchant deal negotiation skills of any transactional tax lawyer." She was also recognized as "2017 Foreign Tax Planning Lawyer of the Year" by Finance Monthly, and Dow Jones, reporting on Procter & Gamble's Reverse Morris Trust transaction with Coty, noted that "it isn't often you see a tax adviser credited on a deal, but that's exactly what happened for Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft in P&G's complicated $12.5 billion unloading of its beauty business to Coty."

Linda is widely regarded as a thought leader in the industry and is a prolific speaker and writer on a wide range of transactional tax issues, with articles that include "Partnership Bankruptcy Tax issues," "Debt Exchanges," "Bankruptcy Tax Issues," and "Bankruptcy Tax 101." She also authors the chapters on Debt Exchanges in Collier on Bankruptcy Taxation (Matthew Bender) and Securities Lending Transactions in Taxation of Financial Institutions (Clark Boardman Callaghan). In addition to writing, she speaks on a broad range of topics, including each year on workout and bankruptcy tax issues at the corporate and real estate tax PLI conferences.

Linda is a member of the Executive Committee of the New York State Bar Association Tax Section and has chaired its Tax-Free Reorganizations; Corporations; Bankruptcy; Consolidated Returns; Real Property; and Tax Accounting and Basis Committees.

Linda received her J.D. from University of Pennsylvania Law School, and her B.A. from Bucknell University, where she graduated magna cum laude and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF HYDO RULES FOR 2009

The 2009 Tax Act generally suspended HYDO rules for any debt instrument issued in a deemed or actual debt for debt exchange between August 31, 2008 and December 31, 2009, except:

- Debt issued in exchange for an existing HYDO.
- Contingent debt instruments.
- Debt issued to person related to the debtor.

The 2009 Tax Act grants the IRS the authority to extend the suspension of the HYDO rules beyond 2009 or use a rate higher than AFR for purposes of applying AHYDO rules.

HYDO RULES SUSPENDED FOR SOME EXCHANGES IN 2010

Notice 2010-11 extends the suspension of the HYDO rules during 2010 only for “qualified obligations.”

A qualified obligation is a HYDO that:

- is issued to an unrelated party in deemed or actual exchange for a non-HYDO of the same issuer;
- does not pay contingent interest under section 871(h)(4);
- has a fair market value-based issue price; and
- would not be a HYDO if its issue price were increased by the amount of any COD income the issuer realizes upon the exchange.
