

(IN CHAMBERS) ORDER PURSUANT TO CONTINUITY OF OPERATIONS PLAN by Judge John A. Kronstadt. Pursuant to the Continuity of Operations ("COOP") Plan for the Central District of California, effective March 23, 2020 through and including May 1, 2020, no hearings in civil cases will go forward except for time-sensitive emergency matters, in which hearings will be conducted telephonically. See Order of the Chief Judge 20-042, available at www.cacd.uscourts.gov. Accordingly, all motions, status conferences and Rule 16(b)/26(f) Scheduling Conferences presently calendared between March 23, 2020 and May 1, 2020 are, or upon the completion of the briefing will be, taken under submission with all scheduled hearings taken off calendar. Pursuant to Local Rule 7.15, all motions will be decided without oral argument; provided, however the Court may order supplemental briefing. All current deadlines for the briefing of motions and the filing of status reports and Rule 16(b)/26(f) Scheduling Conference reports remain in place.
