Date Entered	#	Docket Text
10/13/2020	616	ORAL ORDER: Having discussed with the parties on repeated occasions whether and when to schedule this patent infringement case for a jury trial (see, e.g., D.I. 474, 549, 583, 590, 591, 593, 596, 605, 607, 608, 610–15) and having found (unfortunately) no date that is reasonable and available to all parties and to the Court, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that trial in this matter is CONTINUED to a DATE TO BE DETERMINED, most likely in 2021 (and certainly NOT in 2020). IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties shall meet and confer and, no later than October 19, submit a joint status report which shall include up to three separate dates in 2021 on which all parties reasonably expect they and their witnesses can be available to start a jury trial. Thereafter, the Court will endeavor (consistent with its limited resources) to place this case on its calendar for a presumptive trial on one of the requested dates. Any trial that is scheduled may need to be further rescheduled due to further developments, including the evolving public health situation and other cases (especially criminal cases) that may require trial. ORDERED by Judge Leonard P. Stark on 10/13/20. (ntl) (Entered: 10/13/2020)
