

TEXT ONLY ORDER/NOTICE: As you are aware, we are experiencing an unprecedented situation as COVID-19 continues to spread in our community. With the situation quickly evolving, Judge Frank has decided not to hold in-court hearings on civil matters for at least the next two critical weeks. Therefore, because there is a civil hearing scheduled for Tuesday March 24, 2020, in your case, please discuss between the parties and advise the Court if the parties would prefer that the Court reschedule the hearing for a date later in the spring or that the Court decide the motion as submitted on the papers. The Court does not make this decision lightly but hopes that this will help slow the spread of the virus and keep more people healthy and safe. Thank you for your understanding. Ordered by Judge Donovan W. Frank on 3/17/2020. (las) Modified text on 3/17/2020 (las). (Entered: 03/17/2020)
