Cadwalader Recognized by Chambers as a Leading National Law Firm

New York, N.Y., May 24, 2013— Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP, a counselor to global financial institutions and corporations, has been recognized for excellence in a broad range of practice areas both nationally and regionally in Chambers USA 2013, a leading guide to the legal profession.

More than 20 Cadwalader practices were recognized and 45 lawyers were featured for their legal skills and experience. Cadwalader garnered national recognition in the areas of Capital Markets: Derivatives, Securitization and Structured Products; Corporate/M&A; Energy: Electricity (Regulatory & Litigation); Energy: Oil & Gas (Regulatory & Litigation); Financial Services Regulation: Broker Dealer (Compliance & Enforcement); Real Estate; and Tax: Corporate & Finance.

In New York, the firm was recognized for its work in Corporate/M&A; Employee Benefits & Executive Compensation; Health Care; Intellectual Property: Patent; Litigation: General Commercial and Securities; Real Estate: Mainly Corporate & Finance; and Tax. In addition, the firm's Antitrust and Bankruptcy/Restructuring practices in Washington, D.C., and the Real Estate: Finance practice in Charlotte, N.C., were named for excellence.

"Our commitment to providing clients with insightful legal solutions is, and always will be, our focus," said Chris White, Cadwalader's Chairman. "This recognition is an affirmation by our clients and peers. It's a tremendous honor."

Inclusion in the Chambers USA guide is based on market recommendation from interviews with lawyers, clients, and other professional bodies. Lawyers are judged based on criteria most valued by clients, such as technical expertise, business acumen, and prompt delivery.
