Cadwalader Named 2020 GlobalCapital Regulatory Law Firm of the Year

New York, July 15, 2020 – Cadwalader was recognized as "U.S. Law Firm of the Year – Regulatory" at the GlobalCapital 2020 Americas Derivatives Awards.

The firm's Financial Regulatory Group advises clients on virtually all financial law-related statutory and regulatory requirements, including those governing U.S. and foreign banks and bank holding companies, commercial and consumer finance companies, broker-dealers, securities and futures exchanges, swap dealers, clearing corporations, investment advisers, funds and pension plans. Cadwalader lawyers provide advice across the full range of transactions and products with respect to registration and licensing, compliance, capital treatment, reporting, examinations and enforcement.

Earlier this year the firm received the 2020 International Financial Law Review (IFLR) Americas Financial Services Regulatory Team of the Year award.

GlobalCapital is a news and data service focused on the international capital markets. The GlobalCapital awards recognize the best banks, issuers, investors, law firms and deals as chosen by clients and peers.
