

NewsRelease

For Immediate Release:

Cadwalader Again Recognized as a Technology Leader in The American Lawyer 2019 Midlevel Associates Survey

New York, September 10, 2019 — For a second consecutive year, Cadwalader is ranked No. 2 nationally for its commitment to technology in The American Lawyer 2019 Midlevel Associates Survey. The survey gauges third-, fourth- and fifth-year associates' satisfaction with firm-provided technology, training, support and the use of technology on behalf of clients.

Cadwalader's consistent position as a technology leader in the legal industry is correlated to its success in attracting, developing and promoting exceptional lawyers, as reflected in the firm's top-tier marks in the latest Midlevel Associates Survey, where it is ranked 9th nationally, 1st in Washington, D.C., 3rd in London and 9th in New York.

“Our attorneys know that their technology issues will be addressed by a colleague who understands the pressures and time-sensitivity they face and who will solve problems quickly with minimal frustration,” said Mike Tyler, Cadwalader's Director of IT Client Services. “It is this relationship with and respect for the legal staff that imbues all of what we do, from support calls to major AI projects. It's the hallmark of how we practice IT at Cadwalader.”

About Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP

Cadwalader, established in 1792, serves a diverse client base, including many of the world's leading financial institutions, funds and corporations. With offices in New York, London, Charlotte, Washington and Brussels, Cadwalader offers legal representation in antitrust, banking, capital markets, corporate finance, corporate governance, executive compensation, financial restructuring, intellectual property, litigation, mergers and acquisitions, private equity, private wealth, real estate, regulation, securitization, structured finance, tax and white collar defense. For more information, visit www.cadwalader.com.