Cadwalader Recognized for Commitment to Gender Diversity at Americas Women in Business Law Awards 2012

IFLR Legal Media Group / Euromoney Honors Gender Diversity Programs and Structured Finance Luminary Anna Glick

New York, NY, May 25, 2012, Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP, one of the world's leading legal advisors to financial institutions and corporations, was recognized for its commitment to the advancement of women in the legal profession at the IFLR Legal Media Group / Euromoney Americas Women in Business Law Awards 2012 held in New York last night. The program commemorated and recognized leadership in gender diversity, minority women, innovation, mentoring, pro bono work and work-life balance.

Cadwalader took home the award for "Best in Gender Diversity by an International Firm" for its gender diversity programs, including the Cadwalader's Women's Leadership Initiative, adjustable work schedules and flex time support, and commitment to advocacy for women. Senior Counsel Anna Glick was awarded "Best in Structured Finance (including Securitization & Derivatives)" for her work as an exceptional practitioner in the field of securitization. With more than 25 years of experience, she has worked in the area since its inception, representing issuers, underwriters, institutional investors and servicers active in the primary and secondary capital market in billions of dollars of securities offerings, many of which include novel structures and features.

Legal Media Group/Euromoney publishes the International Financial Law Review (IFLR), a leading financial law publication for lawyers who specialize in international finance in private practice, corporations and banks.
