

NewsRelease

For Immediate Release:

Cadwalader's Duncan Grieve Named a European Investigations Rising Star in Who's Who Legal - Future Leaders 2020

London, 16 March 2020 —Cadwalader's Duncan Grieve has been recognized as a rising star – and is one of only four lawyers noted as “most highly regarded” – in European investigations by Who's Who Legal - Future Leaders 2020.

Grieve, an associate in Cadwalader's White Collar Defense and Investigations Group in London, advises a range of organizations, including multinationals, both on internal corporate investigations and during investigation or prosecution by regulatory bodies including the Serious Fraud Office (SFO), the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA), the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). He has experience in dealing with international investigations involving issues in foreign jurisdictions, including Brazil, Russia, China, India, Romania, the Czech Republic, Mozambique, Canada and Japan.

Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP

Cadwalader, established in 1792, serves a diverse client base, including many of the world's leading financial institutions, funds and corporations. With offices in New York, London, Charlotte, Washington and Brussels, Cadwalader offers legal representation in antitrust, banking, capital markets, corporate finance, corporate governance, executive compensation, financial restructuring, intellectual property, litigation, mergers and acquisitions, private equity, private wealth, real estate, regulation, securitization, structured finance, tax and white collar defense. For more information, visit www.cadwalader.com.