

NewsRelease

For Immediate Release:

Cadwalader's Vivian Maese Ranked Band 1 in Chambers FinTech 2020

New York, January 27, 2020 — Cadwalader is proud to announce that its partner Vivian Maese has received a Band 1 ranking in the Chambers FinTech 2020 guide for the second year in a row, making her the top woman in the U.S.A. in the Corporate, Securities & Financing category.

Maese and her FinTech team focus on strategic and corporate transactions with technology, data, blockchain, artificial intelligence, financial products, trading and regulation at their core.

The team's transaction types include M&A, joint ventures, spinoffs, consortia and strategic investments.

Maese also advises clients in their implementation of digital transformation projects and in the monetization of data and intellectual property.

Chambers FinTech 2020 notes that Maese "combines in-house experience...with a strong track record in private practice to deliver 'masterful' legal advice on corporate matters." Clients remark that "she sees both sides of the coin," and that "her perspective is extraordinary." Maese also is praised for her wide network in the industry: "She knows who I need to talk to in order to move the company forward."

About Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP

Cadwalader, established in 1792, serves a diverse client base, including many of the world's leading financial institutions, funds and corporations. With offices in New York, London, Charlotte, Washington and Brussels, Cadwalader offers legal representation in antitrust, banking, capital markets, corporate finance, corporate governance, executive compensation, financial restructuring, intellectual property, litigation, mergers and acquisitions, private equity, private wealth, real estate, regulation, securitization, structured finance, tax and white collar defense. For more information, visit www.cadwalader.com.