Cadwalader Shortlisted for Two GlobalCapital 2020 Honors: European CLO and CMBS Law Firm of the Year

London, 3 December 2019 — Cadwalader has been nominated for the GlobalCapital 2020 European CLO Law Firm of the Year and European CMBS Law Firm of the Year awards. The winners will be announced at the GlobalCapital European Securitization Awards ceremony on March 4 in London. Cadwalader was named the GlobalCapital European CLO Law Firm of the Year for 2019.

Cadwalader's London Capital Markets team includes partners Suzanne Bell, Robert Cannon, Stephen Day, Claire Puddicombe, David Quirolo, Nick Shiren and Daniel Tobias, with assistance from tax partner Adam Blakemore and his team. The group represents banks, arrangers and asset managers, and has extensive experience with the latest innovations in the CLO 2.0 market, including structuring transactions (both European and U.S.) to comply with European risk retention requirements.

The firm's global Capital Markets Group, featuring attorneys in New York, Charlotte and London, is widely recognized as the premier legal advisor in the commercial mortgage-backed securitization (CMBS) field. The integrated team of lawyers represents investment banks, issuers, funds and private equity sponsors in structuring and executing transactions across a broad array of securities products and asset classes, including asset-backed securities (ABS); CRE CLOs; debt, equity and municipal securitizations; fund finance; fintech; insurance-linked securities and warehouse lending.

GlobalCapital is a news and data service focused on the international capital markets. The GlobalCapital awards recognize the top banks, issuers, investors, law firms and transactions as chosen by clients and peers.
